

Church of Aspiration Member

I am a devoted member of the Church of Aspiration.

Breathing purified air—clean air removed of harmful pollutants and pathogens—is a sacred tenet of our faith.

In accordance with the law, including but not limited to the First Amendment of the United States Constitution and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, I reserve my religious right to wear a mask or respirator at all times as an essential spritual practice and expression of my faith.